

Editing Sentences for Punctuation and Capitalization

Introduction:

It is important for us to always check our work to make sure we used correct capital letters (at the beginning of sentences and on proper nouns) as well as correct punctuation (periods, question marks, commas, etc.).

Instructions:

Edit these sentences for correct use of capitalization and punctuation. Then, copy the corrected sentence on the line below.

the cat is sleeping

how are you today

have you seen sam

she and i ate apples pears and grapes

paul and janet need some food

where are my blocks trains and cars

bob and wilbur are cool

ouch. that hurt.
