

Speech Room Rules

Instructions:

Use these rules in your speech room to help outline expectations. Go over these rules on the first day of speech in depth. Talk about what it looks like to be safe, kind, and responsible. Don't feel like you need to be limited to the examples on this page. Have your clients come up with their own examples of how it looks. Have the children role play the rules (if appropriate). Then, keep them posted nearby where your students can see them. If the child is engaging in inappropriate behavior, redirect the child to these rules and the expected behavior instead.

Use these rules pro-actively! Go over the rules briefly every day when a student enters your speech room, especially with children who tend to forget the rules. Also, if you are beginning an activity that you know tends to cause inappropriate behaviors in one or more of your clients, review the rules again right before that situation. We want to help our clients be as successful as possible!

Speech Room Rules:

Be Safe

Safe Body

Use Materials Safely

Be Kind

Use Kind Words

Stop When Someone Says No

Be Responsible

Listen to the Adult

Do your best work